COMPLAINT

The United States of America brings this action to recover an administrative fine that has become final, and respectfully states the following:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a civil action to recover a civil fine assessed by the United States of America, through the United States Customs and Border Protection ("CBP"), Department of Homeland Security, in the amount of THIRTY-EIGHT THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED EIGHTY-SIX and NO/100 DOLLARS ($38,786.00), issued under authority of Section 10 of the Anticounterfeiting Consumer Protection Act, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1526(f).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1345 and 1355.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1395 in that the action accrued in this judicial district and the defendant is believed to be a resident and domiciliary of this district.

THE DEFENDANT

4. The defendant is Edna Santos, also known as Edna Rivera-Santos, a resident of the Municipality of Orocovis, Puerto Rico. Based on information and belief, the defendant resides at

Bo. Botijas 1, Carretera (Street) 772 Km 9.0 or 9.2 in Orocovis, Puerto Rico. She has been associated with a business named J&L Distributors, which sells jewelry and other items.

FEDERAL STATUTORY AND REGULATORY AUTHORITY

5. A “trademark” is defined as “any word, name, symbol, or device, or any combination thereof – (1) used by a person, or (2) which a person has a bonafide intention to use in commerce and applies to register on the principal register established by this chapter, to identify and distinguish his or her goods, including a unique product, from those manufactured or sold by others and to indicate the source of the goods, even if that source is unknown....” 15 U.S.C. § 1127.

6. The term “mark” includes “any trademark, service mark, collective mark, or certification mark.” 15 U.S.C. § 1127.

7. A “counterfeit trademark” is a “spurious mark which is identical with, or substantially indistinguishable from, a registered mark.” 15 U.S.C. § 1127.

8. The Anticounterfeiting Consumer Protection Act (ACPA), Pub.L.104-153, 110 Stat. 1388, signed into law on July 2, 1996, provides protection to registered trademark holders by directing the seizure and forfeiture of counterfeit trademark merchandise imported into the United States and the issuance of civil penalties against violating importers. The Act (codified at 19 U.S.C. § 1526) provides the following:

(a) Importation prohibited. Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section [addressing a personal use exemption], it shall be unlawful to import into the United States any merchandise of a foreign manufacture if such merchandise, or the label, sign, print, package, wrapper, or receptacle, bears a trademark owned by a citizen of, or by a corporation or association created or organized within, the United States, and registered in the Patent and Trademark Office by a person domiciled in the United States... and if a copy of the certificate of registration of such trademark is filed with the Secretary of the Treasury [CBP]... unless written consent of the owner of such trademark is produced at the time of making entry

(e) Merchandise bearing a counterfeit mark; seizure and forfeiture; disposition of seized goods. Any such merchandise bearing a counterfeit mark (within the meaning of section 1127 of title 15 [defining “mark” to include a trademark]) imported into the United States in violation of the provisions of section 1124 of title 15, shall be seized and, in the absence of written consent of the trademark owner, forfeited for violations of the customs laws. Upon seizure of such merchandise, the Secretary shall notify the owner of the trademark, and shall, after forfeiture, destroy the merchandise.

19 U.S.C. § 1526. See also 19 C.F.R. §§ 133.21-133.26 (regulations implementing statutory seizure and forfeiture provisions).

9. Civil penalties for the infringement of trademark laws are imposed under 19 U.S.C. § 1526(f):

- (1) Any person who directs, assists financially or otherwise, or aids and abets the importation of merchandise for sale or public distribution that is seized under subsection (c) shall be the subject of a civil fine.
- (2) For the first such seizure, the fine shall not be more than the value that the merchandise would have had if it were genuine, according to the manufacturer’s suggested retail price, determined under regulations promulgated by the Secretary.
- (3) For the second seizure and thereafter, the fine shall not be more than twice the value that the merchandise would have had if it been determined to be genuine, as determine under the regulations promulgated by the Secretary.

10. By regulation, the CBP has set the penalty for a first violation at no more than the domestic value of the merchandise as if it had been genuine, based on the Manufacturer’s Suggested Retail Price (“MSRP”). Accordingly, any trademark infringement action may be brought in the appropriate United States District Court to enjoin and seek damages against persons engaged in counterfeiting merchandise. The imposition of a fine is within the discretion of the CBP, and is in addition to any other civil, criminal or other remedy authorized by law. 19 U.S.C. § 1526(f)(4).

FACTS IN SUPPORT OF THE IMPOSITION OF A CIVIL FINE

11. On April 5, 2017, while performing an IPR operation of mail shipments at the USPS General Processing Center in Cataño, Puerto Rico, CBP officers inspected and detained parcel packages with Airway Bill Tracking Numbers EA175506717CN, EA175507947CN, EA123960423CN, EA175507805CN and EA175506456CN, for suspicion of importing counterfeit merchandise. Exhibit A, Airway Bill. The package was addressed to the defendant at an address in Orocovis, Puerto Rico. The sender shipped the package from Guangzhou, China.

12. Upon further inspection of the merchandise, CBP discovered a total of 14 Puma caps, 20 Adidas caps, 24 Armani Exchange caps, 3 Gucci caps, 2 Versace caps, 190 Calvin Klein metal emblems, 111 Calvin Klein keychains, 19 Tous pendants, 19 Tous earrings, 16 Tous metal emblems, 32 Adidas metal emblems, 32 Gucci watches, and 35 Tous watches. These trademarks are protected by Customs Recordation number TMK 06-00169, TMK 06-00113, TMK 03-00439, TMK 04-00246, TMK 03-00467, TMK 97-00015, TMK 07-01247 and U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) Registration Numbers: 1354044, 1300627, 1756717, 1168477, 2426052, 2000616, 2323330. Exhibit B, IPRIS Printout.

13. CBP determined the merchandise was counterfeit, due to the low quality of the products, the packaging method, and the delivery procedures used, which is not common for original merchandise. Exhibit C, SEACATS Incident Report and Photo. CBP's Import Specialist determined that the MSRP of all the goods that were counterfeited totaled a value of $38,786.00. Exhibit D, Appraisal.

14. On June 13, 2017, the CBP Fines, Penalties & Forfeitures Office ("FP&F") issued a Notice of Seizure to the defendant. Exhibit E, Notice of Seizure. The Notice of Seizure described the merchandise as “bearing a counterfeit trademark that is both registered with the Patent and Trademark Office (PTO) and recorded with Customs and Border Protection. The property contains markings which are substantially indistinguishable from and , therefore, bear a counterfeit design/word/mark as indicated above” and as a result, the merchandise was seized and was subject to forfeiture under 19 U.S.C. § 1526(e). The Notice of Seizure notified the defendant of the right to file a petition within thirty (30) days of the notice. CBP did not receive any documents in response to the Notice of Seizure. Thus, on August 16, 2017, CBP forfeited the merchandise. Exhibit F, Declaration of Administrative Forfeiture.

15. On April 6, 2018, CBP issued the defendant a CBP Form 5955A, Notice of Penalty or Liquidated Damages Incurred and Demand for Payment, in the amount of $38,786.00. Exhibit G, Notice of Penalty. The amount of the civil penalty took into consideration the appraised value of the merchandise and the fact that it was a first time seizure under 19 U.S.C. § 1526. The CBP form that was issued asserted that the property bore counterfeit versions of U.S. registered trademarks in violation of 19 U.S.C. § 1526(f). Consistent with the statute, the amount of the civil penalty was assessed at the value of the merchandise as if it were genuine according to the MSRP.

16. The defendant failed to respond to the Notice of Penalty. Therefore, FP&F sent to the defendant three bills on June 10, 2018, June 24, 2018, and July 8, 2018. Exhibit H, FP&F

Demand Letters. The defendant neither responded to the bills nor payed the penalty.

Subsequently, the CBP’s Office of Chief Counsel submitted three additional demand letters to the defendant. The defendant did not provide a response or payment as requested in the letters.

Exhibit I, Assistant Chief Counsel Demand Letters and Return Receipts.

CIVIL PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF 19 U.S.C. § 1526

17. The allegations of paragraphs 1-16 are fully incorporated herein.
18. Because of the above referenced violation of the Anticounterfeiting Consumer Protection Act (ACPA) and the resulting civil monetary penalty, the defendant is indebted to the United States in the amount of $38,786.00.
19. The United States has made demand upon the defendant for payment, but the defendant has failed to pay the civil monetary penalty.
20. Accordingly, the United States is entitled to a judgment against the defendant in the amount of $38,786.00, plus applicable interest and costs.

WHEREFORE, the United States requests judgment against the defendant, Edna Santos, in the amount of $38,786.00, together with applicable interest and costs incurred herein, and any other relief the Court may deem just and proper.

The facts available to CBP indicate that you might have an interest in the seized property. The purpose of this letter is to advise you of the options available to you concerning this seizure. An important document – an “Election of Proceedings” form is enclosed with this letter. You must choose one of the options outlined below, indicate your choice on the “Election of Proceedings” form, and return it and any other necessary documents to CBP within the allotted time frame.

Should you choose to abandon the property, you must still complete the "Election of Proceedings" form and return it to CBP.

Your options are as follows:

1. Petition: You may file a petition with this office within 30 days from the date of this letter in accordance with 19 U.S.C. § 1618 and 19 C.F.R. §§ 171.1 and 171.2, seeking remission of the forfeiture. The petition does not need to be in any specific form, but it must describe the property involved, identify the date and place of the seizure, include all the facts and circumstances which you believe warrant relief from forfeiture, and must include proof of your interest in or claim to the property. Examples of proof of interest include, but are not limited to a car title, loan agreement, or documentation of the source of funds. If you choose this option, you must check Box 1 on the "Election of Proceedings" form.

By completing Box 1 on the "Election of Proceedings" form, you are requesting administrative processing of your case by CBP. You are requesting that CBP refrain from beginning forfeiture proceedings while your petition is pending or that CBP halt administrative forfeiture proceedings, if they have already commenced. However, if CBP has already referred the matter to the U.S. Attorney's Office for the institution of judicial forfeiture proceedings, your petition will be forwarded to the U.S. Attorney for consideration.

If you are dissatisfied with the petition decision (initial petition or supplemental petition), you will have an additional 60 days from the date of the initial petition decision, or 60 days from the date of the supplemental petition decision, or such other time as specified by the Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures Officer to file a claim to the property, along with the required cost bond, requesting referral of the matter to the U.S. Attorney's Office for judicial action. If you do not act within these time frames, CBP may forfeit the property to the United States as authorized by law.

At any point prior to the forfeiture of the property, you may request a referral to the U.S. Attorney by filing a claim and cost bond. Please see section 4 of this letter for information on how to file a claim and cost bond. If you take such action after filing a petition for relief, your pending petition will be withdrawn from consideration.

2. Offer in Compromise: At any time prior to forfeiture, you may file an offer in compromise in accordance with 19 U.S.C. § 1617 and 19 C.F.R. §§ 161.5 and 171.31. The offer must specifically state that you are making it under the provisions of 19 U.S.C. § 1617. If you are offering money in settlement of the case, you must include payment (bank draft, cashier's check or certified check, drawn on a U.S. financial institution, and made payable to CBP) in the amount of your offer. CBP may only consider the amount of your offer and will return the full offer if it is rejected. This option may serve to delay the case. If you choose this option, you must check Box 2 on the "Election of Proceedings" form.

If you chose to submit an offer in compromise and are dissatisfied with the offer decision, you will have an additional 30 days from the date of the offer decision to file a claim and bond requesting a referral for judicial action. If you do not act within the additional 30 days, the property may be forfeited to the United States.

You may also request a referral for judicial action at any point prior to the issuance of the offer in compromise decision. (Please see section 4 of this letter for information on how to file) You may also request a referral for judicial action at any point prior to the issuance of the offer a claim and cost bond. If you take such action, your petition or offer will be considered to have been withdrawn.

If, upon receipt of your offer, the matter has already been referred to the U.S. Attorney for the institution of judicial forfeiture proceedings, your offer will be forwarded to the United States Attorney for consideration as an offer of settlement in the judicial case, as appropriate.

3. Abandon: You may abandon the property or state that you have no claim or interest in it. If you choose this option, you should check Box 3 on the "Election of Proceedings" form. The Government may proceed with forfeiture proceedings or address claims from other parties concerning the property, without further involving you.
4. Court Action: You may request to have this matter referred to the U.S. Attorney for institution of judicial forfeiture proceedings by notifying the office identified in this letter, in writing, that you do not intend to file a petition or offer in compromise with CBP or post the value of the merchandise to obtain its release on payment (see below). If you choose this option, you should check Box 4 on the "Election of Proceedings" form.

If you chose this option, you must submit to CBP (at the address provided at the end of this letter) a claim and cost bond in the penal sum of $5,000 or 10 percent of the value of the claimed property, whichever is less, but in no case shall the amount of the bond be less than $250.00.

If you file the claim and bond, the case will be referred promptly to the appropriate U.S. Attorney for the institution of judicial proceedings in Federal court to forfeit the seized property in accordance with 19 U.S.C. § 1608 and 19 C.F.R. § 162.47. You may then file a petition for relief with the Department of Justice pursuant to Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 9 (28 C.F.R. Pt. 9). Failure to submit a bond with the claim will render the request for judicial proceedings incomplete, and therefore, defective. This means that the case will NOT be referred to the appropriate U.S. Attorney.

If you wish the Government to seek judicial forfeiture proceedings but cannot afford to post the bond, you should contact the Fines, Penalties & Forfeitures Officer or Asset Forfeiture Officer of CBP (where applicable) so that CBP can make a determination of your financial ability to pay the bond. If a determination of inability to pay is made, the cost of the bond may be waived in its entirety. The case will be referred promptly and you may then file a petition for relief with the Department of Justice pursuant to 28 C.F.R. Pt. 9.

Take No Action: If you choose to do nothing, CBP may seek to forfeit the property. In order to obtain forfeiture, CBP must publish a notice of seizure and intent to forfeit for 30 consecutive days, and after that time the Government acquires full title to the seized property. The first notice will be posted on or about 30 days from the date of this letter.

For property appraised in excess of $5,000, CBP will post notice of seizure and intent to forfeit on the internet at www.forfeiture.gov for 30 consecutive days.

For property appraised at $5000 or less, CBP will post notice of seizure and intent to forfeit in a conspicuous place accessible to the public at the customhouse or Border Patrol sector office (where appropriate) nearest the place of seizure as well as on the internet at www.forfeiture.gov for 30 consecutive days.

Release on Payment: If the seized merchandise is not, by law, prohibited from entry into the commerce of the United States, you may, within 30 days of this letter, submit an offer to pay the full appraised domestic value of the seized property accompanied by the full payment (bank draft, cashier's check or certified check, drawn on a U.S. financial institution, and made payable to CBP) or an irrevocable letter of credit in accordance with 19 U.S.C. § 1614 and 19 C.F.R. § 162.44.

If CBP accepts your offer to substitute release of the seized property on payment, the property will be immediately released, and the payment or letter of credit will be substituted for the seized property. You may still submit a petition, offer in compromise, or file a claim and cost bond requesting that the matter be referred to the U.S. Attorney's Office, and you must check the appropriate box on the "Election of Proceedings" form. The decision letter on your offer will provide you with the time frames for those options.

If, upon receipt of your offer, the matter has already been referred to the U.S. Attorney's Office for the institution of judicial forfeiture proceedings, your offer will be forwarded to the U.S. Attorney for consideration.

Holder of a Lien or Security Interest: If you are a holder of a lien or security interest and you do not file a request for court action (option 4 above), you may avail yourself of any of the other options listed. No relief will be granted to you until after forfeiture, unless your petition, offer or request is accompanied by an agreement to hold the United States, its officers and employees harmless, and a release from the registered owner and/or person from whom the property was seized.

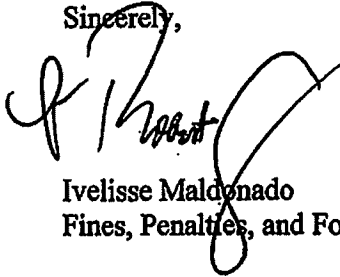

No matter which box you check on the enclosed "Election of Proceedings" form, you should sign, date and return the form, along with any petition, offer in compromise, or request for judicial forfeiture proceedings if those documents are necessary to support the option you choose. If you did not receive this form, please call the telephone number below.

All accompanying documents, including supporting documents, must be in the English language or accompanied by an English language translation and submitted in duplicate.

In addition to the seizure and forfeiture liability, you may be liable for a civil penalty in this matter. If you are liable for a civil penalty, details on the civil penalty are in the attached letter; or, if not attached, are being prepared and will be mailed shortly.

All correspondence should be addressed to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Attn: FP&F Office, City View Plaza II, 48 Carr. 165 OFC 3000, Guaynabo, PR 00968-8046. If further information is required, contact Patricia Hernandez, Paralegal Specialist, at 787-729-6915. All inquiries should reference the case number.

Re: Notice of Penalty Incurred and Demand for Payment in the Amount of $38,786.00
(FP&F Case No. 2018-4909-300052-01)

Dear Ms. Soto:

On April 6, 2018, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) sent to you Customs Form 5955A, "Notice of Penalty or Liquidated Damages Incurred and Demand for Payment," indicating that a monetary penalty had been assessed against you in the amount of $38,786.00. The penalty was issued pursuant to Section 1526(f) of Title 19, United States Code (U.S.C.), as you imported counterfeit products for commercial purposes. In addition to the penalty notice, three additional bills were sent to you on June 10, 2018, June 24, 2018, and July 8, 2018, requesting payment of the penalty.

According to CBP records, on April 20, 2017, you imported 14 Puma caps, 20 Adidas caps, 24 Armani Exchange caps, 3 Gucci caps, 2 Versace caps, 190 Calvin Klein metal emblems, 11 Calvin Klein keychains, 19 Tous pendants, 19 Tous earrings, 16 Tous metal emblems, 32 Adidas metal emblems, 32 Gucci watches, and 35 Tous watches. Pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 1526(e), CBP shall seize and forfeit imported merchandise that bears a counterfeit trademark that is both registered with the Patent Trade Office (PTO) and recorded with CBP. Based on this legal authority, on August 16, 2017, CBP administratively forfeited the counterfeit goods. Subsequently, on April 6, 2018, the above-described penalty was assessed against you. To date, CBP has not received a payment for the penalty amount.

Within 30 days of your receipt of this letter, please contact the attorney listed below to discuss the status of this case. You have the option to make full payment of the penalty; however, you may also make a supplemental petition if certain requirements are met. The attorney can discuss these requirements with you or your legal representative when you contact him.

If we do not receive a response within 30 days, we will ask that the United States Attorney file a complaint against you, in your personal capacity, in U.S. District Court, District of Puerto Rico, for collection of the full amount of the penalty ($38,786.00).

We would appreciate your cooperation to avoid litigation. For your reference, we have enclosed copies of the initial Notice of Penalty and a sample of the initial bill that were sent to you.

Should you, or your legal representative, have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me (Senior Attorney - Kiry Isaac Tous) at 787-729-6695, ext. 2. All correspondence with regard to this matter should be sent to me as well. We strongly encourage you to either pay the penalty in its entirety or contact me within 30 days to avoid litigation. Please note that any payment that you elect to submit must be made by certified check or money order, payable to "U.S. Customs and Border Protection."

Sincerely,
